

ISO 14001:2015 Transition Course

This is a practical one-day course designed to give delegates an understanding of the changes and the tools and strategies needed to implement the new ISO 14001 environmental management standard.

It is aimed at anyone who has, or is looking to gain, a certified Environmental Management System (EMS) and wants to achieve an efficient and effective transition to the new standard.

Course content:

- Key changes between ISO 14001:2004 and ISO 14001:2015
- New requirements in Annex SL (Appendix 2) relating to organizational context, leadership, planning and support
- Identify how to integrate the EMS with business processes

By completing this course, delegates will:

- Understand the proposed changes to ISO 14001:2015 and their intent
- Identify and plan actions to enable an organization to conform to, and realize the benefits of the new requirements

Who should attend?

Anyone involved in the planning, implementing or supervising of an ISO 14001:2015 transition, as well as ISO 14001:2008 auditors who need to convert to ISO 14001:2015.
